ST. MARY - ST. MICHAEL SCHOOL FORMS PRINCIPAL SEARCH COMMITTEE

The parish communities of St. Mary – The Immaculate Conception and St. Michael are pleased to announce the formation of a search committee for the new principal of St. Mary-St. Michael Catholic School on Seymour Avenue in Derby, Connecticut. The Chairperson of the Search Committee will be Patrick J. Clifford, Principal of Notre Dame High School in West Haven. The following will serve as committee members: Fr. Janusz Kukulka, Pastor of St. Mary Church; Fr. Roman Gorowski, C.M., Pastor of St. Michael Church; Gloriann Albini, President of the Home School Association; Arthur Gerckens, current parent and graduate; St. Mary's parishioner Melissa Pucci; and St. Michael's parishioner Joseph Coleman.

The new principal of St. Mary-St. Michael School will build on the more than 125 years of tradition for setting high academic standards, providing strong faith formation, and ensuring a safe, caring Catholic environment for children in pre-kindergarten (ages 3 and 4) through grade eight. The committee will soon begin to interview candidates who have expressed interest in the position. Additional applicants should contact Sister Kathleen M. Fitz Simons, CND, Assistant Superintendent, Office of Catholic Schools, 467 Bloomfield Avenue, Bloomfield, Connecticut, 06002. Sister Kathleen can also be reached by calling 1.860.242.4362.
